SYNOPSIS

One month after the Russian invasion, 12.5 million Ukrainians have left their homes and 5 million have left their country.

Andrei is in France with his wife and children.

I'm accompanying him to Ukraine to pick up some personal belongings in Lviv, where my grandfather grew up.

BIOGRAPHY

Antonin Peretjatko began his career with a series of acclaimed short films, including French Kiss (2005). His first feature, The Rendez-vous of Déjà-vu, was presented at the Directors' Fortnight in 2013. In 2016, he shot Struggle for life in French Guiana, followed by Old Fashioned in 2021. He continues to direct short films such as Yellow Saturday and Evil Seaweed. His last film, Voyage along the war, is a documentary film shot in Ukraine and produced by bathysphere.
